

INDEX TO VOL. XXXVI

- ABDOMINAL pressure, intra, relation to carotid blood-flow, 64.
- Adrenal deficiency, effect upon sympathetic irritability, 423.
- Air, oxygen tension of, effect upon haemoglobin and erythrocytes, 356.
- Altitude, effect on blood cells, 380.
- Antithrombin, effect of temperature on action of, 1.
- Apnoea, dependence on vagus nerves in pulmonary distention, 363.
- Auriculo-ventricular node, and sinoauricular node, conduction between, 367.
- Autolysis, 145.
- Autonomic thresholds, studies of, 57.
- BATHING, metabolism in salt, 488.
- BEEBE, S. P. See FAWCETT, ROGERS, RAHE and BEEBE, 113.
- BINGER, C. A. L. See CANNON, BINGER and FITZ, 363.
- Blood, changes in after muscular activity and during training, 239.
- , coagulation of, 305.
- , diastases of, 359.
- Blood flow, carotid, in relation to intra-abdominal pressure, 64.
- Blood pressure, effect of thyroid extracts on, 113.
- , during vomiting, 104.
- , respiratory waves of, in man, 430.
- Blood transfusion, influence on kidneys, 294.
- , in pancreatic diabetes, 280.
- Body surface, relation to gaseous metabolism, 207.
- BRAAFLADT, L. H. See CARLSON and BRAAFLADT, 153.
- BROOKS, C. and A. B. LUCKHARDT. The blood pressure during vomiting, 104.
- BRUNEMEIR, E. H. and A. J. CARLSON. Contributions to the physiology of the stomach. XIX. Reflexes from the intestinal mucosa to the stomach, 191.
- BURGE, W. E. The comparative rate of oxidation of enzymes and their corresponding pro-enzymes, 357.
- , The effect of radiant energy on the lens and the humors of the eye, 21.
- BURTON-OFFITZ, R. The carotid blood flow in relation to the intra-abdominal pressure, 64.
- , The vaso-motor nerves of the duodenum, 203.
- , The vaso-motor nerves of the portal vein, 325.
- CANNON, W. B., C. A. L. BINGER and R. FITZ. Experimental hyperthyroidism, 363.
- CARLSON, A. J. and L. H. BRAAFLADT. Contributions to the physiology of the stomach. XVIII. On the sensibility of the gastric mucosa, 153.
- and H. GINSBURG. The influence of blood transfusion on the hyperglycemia and glycosuria of pancreatic diabetes in the dog, 280.
- , The influence of pregnancy on the hyperglycemia of pancreatic diabetes, 217.
- , See BRUNEMEIR and CARLSON, 191.
- , See LUCKHARDT and CARLSON, 37.
- Cerebro-spinal fluid, effect of glandular extract on secretion of, 464.
- , studies of, 77.
- Chenopodium, toxicity of oil of, 440.
- Chorda tympani nerve, threshold stimulus of, 299.

- Citrates, effect of, on isolated heart, 126.
- Coagulation of blood, 305.
- COBB, P. W. The influence of pupillary diameter on visual acuity, 335.
- CROZIER, W. J. A note on the physiology of the Cuvierian organs of holothuria captiva Ludw., 196.
- The orientation of a holothurian by light, 8.
- CUSHING, H. See WEED and CUSHING, 77.
- Cuvierian organs, physiology of, 196.
- DALLWIG, H. C., A. C. KOLLS and A. S. LOEVENHART. The relation between the erythrocytes and the haemoglobin to the oxygen tension of the respired air, 356.
- Dental caries, relation to neutralizing power of saliva, 260.
- Dextrose, injection of in pancreatic diabetes, 361.
- Diabetes, excretion of sodium chloride, 357.
- , pancreatic, blood transfusion in, 280.
- Diastases of blood, 359.
- Diet, effect on recuperation after fasting, 362.
- DRINKER, C. K. See DRINKER and DRINKER, 305.
- DRINKER, K. R., and C. K. DRINKER. Factors affecting the coagulation time of blood. VI. The effect of rapid progressive hemorrhage upon the factors of coagulation, 305.
- Duodenum, vaso-motor nerves of, 203.
- ENZYMES, oxidation of, 357.
- Erythrocytes, effect of high altitude on, 380.
- of goose, oxidation in, 364.
- and haemoglobin, as affected by oxygen of air, 356.
- Eye, effect of radiant energy on the lens and humors of, 21.
- EYSTER, J. A. E., and W. J. MEEK. The path of conduction between the sino-auricular and the auriculo-ventricular nodes, 367.
- Exercise. See muscular activity.
- FASTING, recuperation from, 362.
- FAWCETT, G. G., J. ROGERS, J. M. RAHE and S. P. BEEBE. The effect of thyroid extracts upon blood pressure, 113.
- FITZ, R. See CANNON, BINGER and FITZ, 363.

VOL. XXXVI—No. 4

Issued March 1, 1915

BALTIMORE, U. S. A.

1915

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF PHYSIOLOGY is issued monthly by the American Physiological Society under the direction of the Council of the Society. There are at present from two to three volumes yearly, each of about five hundred pages. The price of one volume, postage free, is five dollars to subscribers in the United States and Canada and five dollars and twenty-five cents to subscribers in other countries. All subscriptions are payable in advance.

Articles submitted for publication may be sent, preferably by registered mail, to the Managing Editor, Dr. D. R. Hooker, Johns Hopkins Medical School, corner of Washington and Monument Streets, Baltimore, Md., or to any member of the Council. All business communications should be sent to the Managing Editor.

CONTRIBUTORS ARE REQUESTED TO OBSERVE THE FOLLOWING SUGGESTIONS.

1. While the length of articles cannot be specified, they should not run to excessive length especially by inclusion of unessential tables and protocols which add materially to the cost of publication.

2. Each article should conclude with a brief summary of results, suited to the needs of reference journals.

3. Reference to literature cited should contain, first, the name of the author or authors; second, the name of the journal or book; third, the year; fourth, the volume number and fifth, the page. Thus, Meltzer: American Journal of Physiology, 1908, xxi, 449. References should be numbered serially and be gathered at the end of the paper.

4. All figures for illustration should be submitted in such form as to admit of photographic reproduction without retouching or redrawing. These latter procedures are expensive and are liable to error.

Tracings on smoked paper reproduce well if the white lines are distinct and separate and the background is uniform black. Authors may safely retouch breaks or weak spots in the white lines with white ink and fill in the background with India ink. Letters and symbols should be clear and legible.

Curves laid on ordinate paper should be in India ink. Background lines in blue will not reproduce; red, yellow and green will reproduce black. Plotted curves and drawings yield better results if the originals are large enough to permit a very considerable reduction (two to fourfold) in the plate used for illustration.

Unless specific instructions are given by authors, the printer will be allowed to use his judgment in determining the amount of reduction on all figures. In general such reduction will conform to the journal page so that the reader views the figure and legend without change of position.

Manuscripts, and particularly figures, should be carefully protected by a stiff board against injury when sent by post or express.
